

“The atmosphere at Ecole Montessori Casablanca is one of a family. The teaching staff and admin staff have helped make the transition to a new school and a new country feel effortless. Living in Morocco is a new experience that does not feel daunting with the support and care provided both prior to arriving, and whilst living here. As a new guide I feel supported to explore and challenge myself, without the fear of making a mistake.”

Claire Brazzill

United Kingdom

